IMPACT INTERVIEWS

2019 Healing Is Here Conference

Thousands of people experienced the power of healing firsthand at the 2019 Healing Is Here Conference. Restored through powerful prayer and filled with the Holy Spirit, many people received their wellness report from Jesus Christ. We heard testimonies of lives completely transformed, and we are excited to share them with you.

Aprille Trupiano—St. Louis, Missouri

What is your occupation?

I'm a consultant to the financial services industry.

How did you become acquainted with Andrew Wommack?

My fiancé, Scott, found Andrew. They wanted to perform surgery on his back. He had been a victim of the opioid crisis. He was on a lot of medication just to step out of bed. He wasn't going to have another operation, so he was looking for an alternative. When he found it, he wanted to drag me along with him. I didn't want to come to the conference, but I did, and here I am.

Have you been healed or had a significant life change through one of Andrew's teachings?

My healing relates to everything that Andrew teaches. I spent nine-and-a-half years looking for a solution or a diagnosis of what was wrong with me. I saw fifty-four doctors in the United States, and no one could figure out what was wrong. The list of symptoms kept growing. I found a medication I thought could help in Vietnam. I came home, and I took medication. Six months later, it still wasn't helping. I didn't have any answers, and I kept saying the rest is up to God. That was when Scott said, "Just come with me." My attitude really was, "What am I going to get out of the conference that I haven't already gotten?"

When I got to Healing Is Here, it flipped a lot of things on its head. I got my life back! I thought what I knew was enough, but I learned if you accept that Jesus Christ died on the cross for you and your sins, you also have to accept that Jesus Christ died for your sicknesses. He bore every sickness that ever was, that would ever be. For three nights in a row during the conference, I was doubled over in pain. Every day I was increasingly exhausted. Audrey Mack was teaching us you have to get angry. Andrew was on the stage, saying you've got to get angry; there's righteous anger. I'm thinking, "You have no idea how angry I am right now," but what I didn't understand is I was angry at the wrong things. I wasn't angry at God, but I wasn't taking my authority. I didn't understand I have the power of the Holy Spirit.

"When I got to Healing Is Here, it flipped a lot of things on its head. I got my life back!"

Finally, one day I was with a prayer partner, and I filled with the Holy Spirit. I began to speak in tongues and didn't know what to do with that. I began to understand that I actually have the healing power of Christ in me, that everything I need I already have. At that moment, I did hear Jesus speak to me. He said, "Child, why do you doubt me?" I started to cry. Here's Andrew talking about how Christ was crucified, tortured, humiliated, and hung on the cross for me. I heard His voice, and I thought, what else could I possibly ask Him to do to show me that He's done it all for me? It must be me. I need to hang on to the belief.

One of the issues I have is I couldn't eat almost anything. My liver wasn't working, and my kidneys were shutting down; I couldn't digest fats, carbs, or proteins. I was malnourished and allergic to all the vitamins. I grabbed a sandwich, something I couldn't do for almost ten years, prayed over it, and I ate the sandwich. I said, "God, I'm not going to test you; I'm going to believe you've done this for me. I'm going to test my faith and belief." Twenty minutes later, we're sitting in the session, and I was okay. Scott and I were both in tears and praising God. I've been eating everything in sight ever since. When I got home, I could feel my body was working again. It was instantaneous the change in my body. My energy level shot up. I feel like a normal person again. Without this conference, without Andrew's teachings, without all the people Andrew has the wisdom to bring together for us to hear and learn from, I don't know how long I would have been alive.

How are you enjoying the conference? What do you like about it?

I was somebody who didn't want to come to this conference, and I got everything out of this conference. I got my life back. I got my relationship back. I got my family time back. I got my future back. To anyone who is thinking about coming to the Healing Is Here Conference, do whatever it takes so that you can have your life exactly the way you want it and exactly as Christ intended. He died on that cross for you to have a prosperous, abundant, healthy, joyful life. That's what you can get out of Healing Is Here. I was completely and fully healed at the Healing Is Here Conference.

Deborah Kiezebrink—Nestleton, Ontario

What is your occupation?

Our family runs a country inn in Canada. We're in the process of adding a dining and a spa facility.

How did you become acquainted with Andrew Wommack?

My father-in-law, Harry Kiezebrink, used to watch Andrew Wommack on television every day. I was always intrigued by Andrew's style on television. It wasn't about charisma. It was just a simple straightforward program with a beautiful backdrop setting, sitting and sharing and talking to the camera like talking to a dad or an uncle. It was very comforting. I was intrigued by my father-in-law and how he seemed to get so much out of Andrew by listening to him every day.

Have you been healed or had a significant life change through one of Andrew's teachings?

I think watching You've Already Got It! really set with me. It occurred to me "you're right!" I received my salvation in Christ by faith. I heard Jesus died for my sins; He paid the price, and I wanted salvation. I didn't have to do anything for that. I'd always thought healing was different. I always felt like I wasn't in the right place at the right time. Usually, I didn't even try to be healed. I thought narcolepsy was the way God made me, and it's the way I was born. Two of my toes are webbed. I've never asked the doctor to cut them apart. I didn't really see it as something I needed to be healed from. I gradually got worse.

I became so desperate, and my sister said, "I'm going to Colorado for a healing conference." I went up to the front for prayer, they said, "We don't pray for people here, you pray for yourself, we'll agree with you." I prayed, and I said, "Lord. Please, God, would You heal me of narcolepsy and gluten intolerance, it's awful?" I was pouring out my heart. The lady shook her head; "I'm so sorry, but I can't agree with that prayer, you know you've got it. Does this make you mad? Would you want this narcolepsy, do you want this gluten?" I said, "I don't." She said, "Get mad at this thing and tell it to go, why don't you try again?" I started praying again. I prayed with a little bit more sternness this time, "In the name of Jesus, I command this narcolepsy and gluten intolerance to leave in Jesus' name." She said, "That was better, but I still don't believe you, why don't you try it again?" I prayed a third time for myself, and she listened. She said, "Wow, that was good, I can agree with that." She prayed with me and said, "Now go do something you couldn't do." I can't test narcolepsy. I did know how to test the gluten intolerance. Everyone else had gotten cinnamon rolls at breakfast, and I didn't have one because that would make me sick for a week. I would have headaches for three days, ice packs on my head, and my belly swell. It would be in agony.

That night I went back to the cabin, and I had a cinnamon roll. The next morning, I was good. We went back to Canada. Every day Mom would meet me for breakfast in the morning for coffee and ask, "How are you doing?" I'd say, "Mom, I'm good, I'm not sick." I kept believing. My daughter started telling everybody because it was a true miracle. They asked my husband, "Was your wife really healed?" He said, "Absolutely!"

Previously, when they did the testing, they said I would fall asleep in two minutes and drop into a dream sleep. When I was diagnosed, doctors told my husband I had the worst case of narcolepsy they had seen at the sleep clinic in twenty years. This was my life until last year. I'm a year healed. I went back to my family doctor, who's a Christian, and expressed that I got healed at Charis Bible College at the Healing Is Here Conference, and I wanted this medication off my file because I don't need this medication to stay awake. I'm awake all day long, I sleep at night, I take normal naps, I'm completely well, I don't have a gluten intolerance; I can eat whatever I want and don't get sick. For the last year I haven't had any medication. I have absolutely no issues with energy or staying awake.

How are you enjoying the conference? What do you like about it?

It is so amazing to be here at Healing Is Here a year later. It's refreshing to finally have my husband and my family experience what we experienced a year ago. I love that the focus isn't on Andrew praying for you, or this speaker has to pray. It's not about having to strive, fight to get to the front. God loves all of us. God has already provided for all of us. We can be healed every day, not just at a conference. God is always there to work and move in our lives. That's my excitement about being here; it's more learning and more growing.

Racquel Kiezebrink—Nestleton, Ontario

What is your occupation?

My occupation is fashion design. I'm in the starting processes of creating a brand and buying all the materials and machinery.

How did you become acquainted with Andrew Wommack?

My grandfather has his programs on in the evening. That's when I first started watching him every so often. My aunt was talking about some of his teachings, so I would listen to podcasts and then the daily television shows. I began to believe in healing apart from his ministry. When I heard his teaching, I didn't really hear anyone else who had those same beliefs. That really built up my faith.

Have you been healed or had a significant life change through one of Andrew's teachings?

We came to the conference last year because I wanted to learn more about how to attain and have healing manifest in your body. In my first year of university, I found out that my spine was very curved. Through that process, my mom came to support me, but then she learned about God's healing power and the smaller things you learn to deal with in your everyday life, like the gluten allergy she had, and the narcolepsy. It's something she didn't have to accept. She went up for prayer, and she learned how to take authority. They asked her to do something she couldn't normally do. She went back home and ate a cinnamon bun. That was a pretty big jump of faith because if she weren't healed, that would have been a sickness throughout the rest of the time here. She ended up sleeping the whole night and woke up the next morning. She had no symptoms. At night her sleeping patterns would be messed up. From that moment on throughout the rest of the year, she's been eating all sorts of bread and pies. She's totally well, very happy. She's awake and alert.

The healing that I received, they always say it's in accordance with your faith. In my thinking, some of the anxiety and other things have gotten in the way. I was depressed for a long time about the way I looked and that I'd stopped doing different sports. I'd worry about worsening my back. I went to a chiropractor, and I learned all the details of what was wrong with my body. You start thinking about all those things more than what the Word of God says. For me this whole year, I've been free. I may not have gotten that manifestation of physical healing yet, but I've gotten healing in my mind and heart because the whole year of my fourth-year university, I didn't think about myself as being disabled or sick. I took up rock climbing. I've definitely started my journey. Before all of this, I had a vision of my spine being straight. I didn't know what that was like. I didn't know why. That was before we started with Andrew Wommack Ministries. I think that was that first step to get it in your heart before we got here.

Scott Benson—St. Louis, Missouri

What is your occupation?

I work for a company called SEMA Credit, and I'm an area sales manager for them.

How did you become acquainted with Andrew Wommack?

I have a mentor, Mark Lebeque, and he has his own ministry. I grew up Baptist and when I kept reading the Bible, it kept saying the Holy Spirit. Jesus had to go away, and the Comforter had to come. I was never taught about the Holy Spirit. I was going to Spirit-filled churches and was getting hands laid on. Mark kept on talking to me about my unbelief. I thought, "What are you talking about? I believe in God's Word. Why can't I receive the Holy Spirit?" At one point in time, he got frustrated with me and said, "Go listen to Andrew Wommack, and listen to God Wants You Well and You've Already Got It! He'll really touch base on what I'm talking about, this unbelief." I listened to those two, and I was hooked.

Have you been healed or had a significant life change through one of Andrew's teachings?

I always reference the Bible. When I listened to God Wants You Well, I was dealing with an L3-4-5 fusion from 2008. I was on 175 micrograms of Fentanyl every three days, six Percocet, six Oxycontin, and three Methadone a day. I was a walking drug store. Every day I woke up, I would put my feet on the ground, and I was already in pain. I got to a point where I was done with this. I went back to the doctor and they said I needed another fusion. The doctor told me, "We're going to give you a back brace." I looked at him and said, "That's it. I'm done. I'm healed." I walked out of the doctor's office and never looked back. It was the foundation of Andrew's teachings about what the Word says. By His stripes you are healed (Isaiah 53:4-5, Matthew 8:17, and 1 Peter 2:24). I believe in the Word, so why isn't the Word in those teachings activated? Suddenly, I had a revelation, and it came alive in my body. Everything that I'm looking at, God spoke it by His Word, and if His Word is alive and He spoke it, and the Word is true, then why am I not healed as a believer? Why don't I have the Holy Spirit? Then it hit me that I'm healed. God really does want you well, and sickness is a curse, and it doesn't need to be in your body, and pain doesn't need to be in your body. That struck a chord. You've Already Got It! and God Wants You Well go hand in hand, especially when you're on a journey of healing. They really woke up my spirit and my heart to what God's Word says.

What does partnership with Andrew Wommack Ministries (or Andrew) mean to you?

One of the things in listening to Andrew's teaching was that he said, "Where you get fed, you should sow." I was getting fed and healed. I'd carry his little cards around, and I'd pass them out to all the people I possibly could to share his free downloads. I felt I was getting fed, so I should sow into it and become a partner. Honestly, how do you come to something and get so much and not want to give back to it?

How are you enjoying the conference? What do you like about it?

If you ever want to find out what God has in store for you around healing, the Healing Is Here Conference is going to open your heart up. The day you walk in, you will not be the same when you walk out. When you see a thousand people or more getting healed, being touched by the Holy Spirit, why wouldn't you want to be here? What is stopping you from coming to something like this? I'm going to be back next year.

Christopher Reese—Dayton, Ohio

What is your occupation?

Pastor of New City Church.

How did you become acquainted with Andrew Wommack?

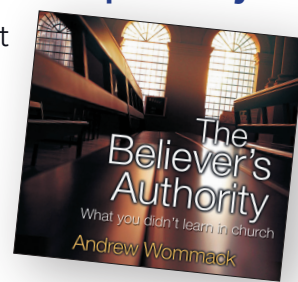

A friend of mine had invited me to come to The Auditorium dedication that took place here at Charis Bible College. I stepped on the grounds for the first time at The Auditorium dedication and things just skyrocketed from there. As I'm walking through what's called The Barn there, I get stopped by one of the . . . I don't know if he was a volunteer or if he was an employee or what, but he was a nice guy and we'd had conversation. He had asked me if I had been born again, and I said, "Yeah, I've been born again," and then he mentioned the Baptism of the Holy Spirit. He said, "Do you want to receive the Baptism of the Holy Spirit?" and I said, "Yeah," and so he laid hands on me to receive the Baptism of the Spirit, and for the very first time I spoke in tongues and it has just been awesome ever since. My ministry has just totally changed. I've introduced the Baptism of the Spirit to our church when I went back. I did a little studying and I put a message together on the Baptism of the Holy Spirit and at the end of that message I did an invitation for folks to come forward to receive the Baptism of the Spirit, and we had about 70 percent of our church come and receive it. So how come we didn't have a hundred percent of the church come? Because about 30 percent of the church left. That's a shame that that happened, but now six months later into this, our church is growing in leaps and bounds and it's awesome. I've been wrecked from just coming to The Auditorium dedication and I got so excited that I became an Association of Related Ministries International (A.R.M.I.) member.

"I'm a changed man because of Andrew Wommack Ministries and I'm so grateful."

What is your favorite teaching of Andrew's, and how has it impacted you?

My favorite teaching of Andrew's is The Believer's Authority. I didn't realize the true power that I have as a believer in Christ who has been Holy Spirit baptized. I know that in my heart I have the same power that raised Jesus Christ from the dead living inside of me, and that Jesus wants me to use that power to lay hands on those that are sick and heal them and cast out demons.

How are you enjoying the conference? What do you like about it?

I'm here at the Healing Is Here Conference and it's just been awesome. I had back pain for years; it's been healed. I've seen healings take place up front. I watched this guy take his walker, move it off to the side, and literally run in front of the stage back and forth a couple times and then he took off running up the aisle. He was eighty something years old, I believe, and he was completely healed. It's just been awesome to see that. I mean, it's just amazing.

Would you like to say anything to Andrew?

Andrew, I would just like to thank you for everything that you've done for me and for our church and all these resources that you give, and just everything that you've done. You've poured in your heart and soul into your ministry and I just thank you from the bottom of my heart. I'm a changed man because of Andrew Wommack Ministries and I'm so grateful.
