FEATURED TEACHING:
Don't Limit God

WHAT'S POSSIBLE WHEN YOU DON'T LIMIT GOD

The beginning of anything can often look small, unremarkable, or even downright impossible. When I first sensed God's call to take my ministry to television, it didn't seem like it could ever happen. I remember thinking, How can this happen? I'm just a guy with a message. I don't have a big budget or a flashy production team. But I soon realized that what we consider limitations, God sees as opportunities for His glory to shine.

It was twenty-five years ago when I first started my Gospel Truth television broadcast—truly a miracle. When the Lord initially spoke to me about television, I interviewed several people who were supposed to help me get started. But none of them seemed to be the right fit. They had their own plans and ideas for me, but something didn't feel right.

Then a friend of mine recommended Stephen Bransford. I'll never forget the moment he walked in the door. He didn't pitch anything to me. Instead, he wanted to understand who I was and what God had called me to do, before offering any solutions. That was different. That was exactly what I needed.

I gave Stephen some of my materials, and a week later he returned, having taken the time to listen, understand, and hear from the Lord. He didn't just want to produce a show; he wanted to help me communicate the Gospel effectively.

Stephen had years of experience in television production, but more importantly, God had been preparing him for that exact moment. He had worked with ministries like Billy Graham's, TBN, and others, but when he walked into the small building I had at the time, God showed him exactly where he was meant to be. He saw it all—the office he'd be working in, the classroom where the set would be located—and he knew that this was where he was supposed to be.

That moment was a reminder to me of how God leads us step by step. We might not always see the big picture at first, but God knows exactly where He's taking us. When I look back on those early days, I realize how far God has brought us. That humble, little building on Robinson Street wasn't much to look at. But it was where God began this television ministry. And just like the Lord showed Stephen where he was supposed to be, He showed me where we were going.

When Stephen came onboard, we began talking about the vision for the program. I had ideas for flashy graphics and high-production value, but Stephen gently reminded me that my strength wasn't in showmanship; it was in sharing God's Word simply and directly. He saw that my teaching style was like sitting across the table, talking plainly and making the Bible clear.

“The Gospel's power isn't in showy elements. It's in the simple truth. God hadn't called me to put on a show—He called me to make His Word clear to anyone who would listen.”

That's when it clicked. The Gospel's power isn't in showy elements. It's in the simple truth. God hadn't called me to put on a show—He called me to make His Word clear to anyone who would listen. Looking back after twenty-five years, I'm overwhelmed with gratitude—not just for the growth of this ministry, but for the lives touched and hearts changed by the truth of the Gospel.

This has never been about me—it's always been about God and His faithfulness. His calling is not limited by our circumstances or by what we see in the natural. Whatever God calls you to do, He will provide the way, the people, and the resources to make it happen.

If you have faith as a grain of mustard seed, nothing is impossible.

Maybe you're feeling like you're too small, too unqualified, or too far behind to ever step into what God is calling you to. Maybe you think there are too many obstacles. But let me just tell you—don't limit what God wants to do. Jesus said, "If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, . . . nothing shall be impossible unto you" (Matt. 17:20). God isn't looking for your perfection, just your willingness. He's looking for someone to trust Him and say, "Yes, Lord, I believe You can do this through me."

Is there something God is calling you to do, but you feel like it's too big or too impossible? As you trust God more in your situation, know that He is faithful to complete what He starts. Are you willing to believe Him, even when it doesn't seem like the right time or the right place? Remember, the same God who led me through the impossible twenty-five years ago is still leading today. Whatever He has placed in your heart, don't limit Him—let Him show you what's possible when you step out in faith.

In my Don't Limit God teaching, I go into much more detail with practical examples and real-life stories that can help you take the limits off what God wants to do in your life. I really encourage you to get the complete teaching. It's available in book, study guide, CD, and DVD formats.

We also have some free booklets to get you started. You can request Take the Limits off God: An Introduction to Don't Limit God or Believing Is Seeing: An Introduction to The Power of Imagination. Both are available in English and Spanish. Plus, we're offering a free "Don't Limit God" static-cling sticker as a daily reminder to keep your vision open to God's plans. EXPERIENCE THE POWER OF THE HOLY SPIRIT IN YOU

NEW CHARIS MASTERCLASS AVAILABLE!

What if everything you've been taught about the Holy Spirit is just scratching the surface? When Jesus walked on earth, He was led and taught by the Holy Spirit—and that same power now lives inside of you as a believer! Jesus assured His disciples in John 16:7:

Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you.

During Jesus' earthly ministry, believers could only interact with Him in one place at a time. But now, Jesus has sent the Holy Spirit to be with every believer—all the time. Many Christians don't realize the profound impact this truth can have in every area of life.

One of the Holy Spirit's key roles is revealed in John 14:26:

But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.

As your teacher, the Holy Spirit brings the Word of God to life and supernaturally helps you understand and take hold of truth. The more time you spend tuning in to the Holy Spirit, the more He will remind you of the words God has spoken in Scripture and the things He has placed in your heart.

Victory in the Christian life comes from walking closely with God. And once you understand how to tap into the power and guidance of the Holy Spirit, you can experience peace and joy every step of the way.

PARTNERSHIP DELIVERS HEALING AND TRANSFORMATION!

MIRACULOUS HEALING AT JOB

"While at work, I felt really sick with terrible pain on the side of my head. I broke into a cold sweat, and my blood pressure shot up. Since I was the only administrator on duty, I couldn't leave my job, so I called the Helpline. Someone prayed for me, and within a minute, every symptom disappeared. I didn't make it to the ER; I went straight to Dr. Jesus. Praise God—He truly is our Great Physician!"

— Lesleyanne L.

FREEDOM FROM MIGRAINES

"Thank you for the hope you bring to people through prayers and teaching materials. They've helped me grow in faith. I had been dealing with migraines for over a year, which often made me dizzy. After someone prayed for me, I started speaking God's Word and declaring it over my life. Today, I am healed by the stripes of Jesus!"

— Brian M.

REVELATION BRINGS PHYSICAL RESTORATION

"I am rejoicing and feel stirred up inside because of the revelations shared through Andrew's powerful teachings. While I was following along with the study on Hebrews, I realized healing was manifesting in my body, and I no longer need a cane to move around my home. Hallelujah! AWM is truly a blessing to so many."

— Elisha M.

RENEWED HOPE THROUGH DISCIPLESHIP

"I received Christ as my Lord and Savior over two decades ago, but I lived in fear due to religious teachings that made me feel unworthy. This year, I found freedom through a free Discipleship Evangelism course through your ministry. Andrew's teachings are transforming my life, and I'm so grateful to the partners who made these resources available for free. I can't stop thanking God!"

— Catherine S.

A TOWN TRANSFORMED BY GOD'S POWER

"Thanks to Andrew's teaching, a town in the UK has been completely transformed! Stay encouraged, dear brothers and sisters—God's Word works. When I arrived in England as a missionary, I faced persecution (2 Tim. 3:12). But in just three summer months, over three hundred precious souls came to Jesus, and we witnessed many healings and deliverances. Hallelujah! God is so good!"

— Bert B.

FIND YOUR VISION AND LIVE A LIFE OF PURPOSE!

REMEMBER, GOD CARES ABOUT YOU AND YOUR FUTURE

When Martha saw Mary sitting at Jesus' feet instead of helping her serve, she asked Jesus, "Don't you care?" Many Christians pray as though Jesus doesn't care. But Jesus' response was an invitation to relationship, not a rebuke. He was letting her know, "Martha, Martha, I do care."

— Jamie Wommack

And Jesus answered and said unto her, "Martha, Martha, thou art careful and troubled about many things: But one thing is needful: and Mary hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her."

Luke 10:41-42

SEEK TO KNOW GOD, AND VISION WILL FOLLOW

The more you grow in your relationship with the Lord, the grander your vision will be. The more you know the heart of your Father and understand who He is within you, the more His presence will be revealed through your life. Abide in Christ and you will bear much fruit (John 15:5).

— Carrie Pickett

EXPERIENCE ETERNAL LIFE HERE AND NOW

Don't be conformed to this world and think like they do. Jesus gave Himself to deliver us from this present evil world, not just the one to come. We're supposed to experience supernatural and eternal life right now (John 17:3). We ought to be having "steak on the plate while we wait," instead of looking for "pie in the sky by and by."

— Andrew Wommack

And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.

Romans 12:2

RUN YOUR RACE (ONE STEP AT A TIME)

You can't change your destination overnight, but you can change your direction overnight.

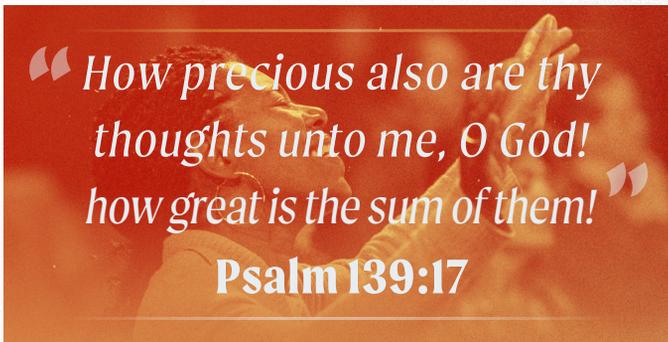

When you feel like you've missed God, remember, He can recalculate your path and get you back on track just like a navigation system. He's always guiding you to run the race He's called you to run.

— Billy Epperhart

And let us run with patience the race that is set before us.

Hebrews 12:1b

Quotations have been paraphrased for clarity and brevity while preserving the original intent and message.

LET THE WORD RAISE YOUR EXPECTATIONS AND REMOVE ALL LIMITS

What would you do if you knew you couldn't fail and had everything you needed to succeed?

God has provided success for us in His Word; we just need to come into agreement with it, prioritizing it in our lives. I encourage you to become a disciple and student of the Word. Nothing will satisfy you like God's Word. It will cause transformation, effortless change, and you'll start thinking bigger.

Liam Morrison, a Massachusetts eighth grader, is asking the U.S. Supreme Court to uphold his First Amendment rights after being sent home for wearing a shirt that said "There are only two genders." Represented by Alliance Defending Freedom (ADF), Liam contends that his school violated his constitutional right to free speech.

Despite the First U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals siding with the school, the ADF and eighteen states are urging the Supreme Court to take the case, emphasizing the importance of students' rights to express biblical truth in public schools.

NO THIEVES IN THE TEMPLE

GUARDING YOUR LIFE FROM UNWANTED INTRUSIONS

Too often, many of us unknowingly leave the doors of our lives open, giving the enemy a foothold to sneak in and cause destruction. Just as we protect our homes from intruders, we are responsible as believers to guard our minds and bodies against any form of theft the enemy attempts, including sickness.

One of the key points I want you to remember is this: easy access does not give legal right. Just because the enemy finds an opening—whether through fear, doubt, misinformation, or something else—doesn't mean he has the authority to rob you of your health, peace, or blessings. Through Christ and the wisdom given in His Word, we have the power to close those doors and avoid unnecessary battles that our own actions might've brought.

Here's the good news: even if we've messed up and let things in that we shouldn't have, it doesn't take away the victory we have in Jesus. First Corinthians 15:57 tells us,

But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Emphasis added

We have victory—not because of anything we've done but because of what Jesus has already accomplished for us. To help make this point clearer, I want to share an example of a prizefighter. Imagine a boxer fighting a hard-won victory and then handing his prize check to his wife. She didn't step into the ring, but she shares in the victory. In the same way, God's Word tells us we're more than conquerors (Rom. 8:37) because we get to walk in the reward of Christ's triumph over sin and death. We don't fight alone; we already have the victory!

So, the next time you face a challenge with your health, finances, or relationships, remember that the enemy has no rightful claim over what belongs to you in Jesus' name. Stand firm, speak His promises, and declare that no thief will enter the temple of your life. Jesus' victory is your victory, and through Him, every battle has already been won.

“We have victory—not because of anything we've done but because of what Jesus has already accomplished for us.”

HOW MUCH FAITH DO I NEED TO BE HEALED?

Did you know that when you received salvation, you also received healing? You may wonder, If that's true, why am I still sick? The answer lies in understanding your position in Christ. Hosea 4:6 says, "My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge."

For a long time, I misunderstood faith. But the more I understood God's love for me, the more I was able to receive what He had already provided. Faith isn't about convincing God to respond—it's about appropriating what grace has already made available.

Many people think, I can't fulfill the call of God on my life because sickness is holding me back. That's exactly what the enemy wants. Sickness doesn't just attack your body—it's a tool to steal your calling and vision. But Ephesians 2:5–6 reminds us that we are alive with Christ and seated in heavenly places. Nothing—not even sickness—can separate us from God.

Remember the childhood game "King of the hill"? That is a picture of our victory in Christ. As believers, we are like the kings of the hill because of Christ's victory. We've been delivered from judgment and made partakers of salvation. But the enemy will try to push us off with sickness, doubt, or lack. Matthew 11:12 says, "The violent take it by force." To stay in our place of victory, we must stand firm and resist the enemy.

I remember when my sister was hospitalized with COVID. As I stood by her bed, tears streaming down my face, I had to fight unbelief and speak with the authority of God's Word, commanding her symptoms to align with His promises. That experience taught me how critical it is to stay grounded in God's Word.

Faith isn't passive; it's a daily decision to resist doubt and unbelief and exalt the truth. As my husband always says, "It only takes one revelation to change everything." No matter the symptoms or circumstances you might face, the truth is that healing is already yours—it's a part of the salvation package. Keep standing on God's Word and rejecting unbelief. Remember, you're not fighting for victory—you're standing in it.

CROHN'S DISEASE HEALED INSTANTLY

Sunny John spent years battling Crohn's disease, an inflammatory bowel condition that brought paralyzing pain and frequent hospital visits. It wasn't until his wife, Deepti, encountered Andrew Wommack's teachings on faith and healing that Sunny's life took a miraculous turn.

For years, Sunny had to avoid many of his favorite foods, constantly fearing that a simple meal might trigger unbearable symptoms. His life became a cycle of pain and restrictions. After countless treatments with little relief, he began to lose hope.

Meanwhile, Deepti struggled with fear and panic attacks over her husband's illness. One day, she realized that she hadn't been placing her trust in God. Searching for healing resources online, she discovered one of Andrew's healing videos. Deep in her heart, she knew that if Sunny would receive prayer, he would be healed.

dishes that would've sent him to the hospital. As he ate, Sunny realized he was free from pain and completely healed!

A visit to his doctor confirmed the miracle. Blood tests revealed that his inflammatory marker had dropped dramatically and was nearly normal. Today, Sunny enjoys all his favorite foods, but more than that, his healing has opened doors for him and Deepti to share the Gospel with Indian families throughout England. Empowered by the Holy Spirit and a revelation that God wants everyone well, they continue to see healings and breakthroughs wherever they go.

Thanks to the generosity of our partners, we're able to share testimonies like Sunny's and provide free resources to those seeking transformation. Watch the full story at awmi.net/journeys for more inspiration!

“Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time: Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you.”
1 Peter 5:6-7

In 2019, after much prayer and faith, Sunny agreed to join Deepti at Andrew's Grace & Faith Conference in the UK. Throughout the event, Deepti continued believing for her husband's healing. On the final day, the Holy Spirit moved in a way she'd never imagined.

“Andrew started speaking in tongues and started releasing words for healing” she remembers. When Andrew then called out someone in the audience suffering pain from Crohn's disease, Sunny was stunned and knew God was speaking directly to him. “I was like, wow, this is for me!” he recalls.

In that defining moment of faith, Sunny walked up to the front to receive prayer—not asking for healing but receiving what he believed God had already provided. Later, he and Deepti went to a restaurant and ordered the very
