Rosie Tallie – West Point, Mississippi

What is your occupation?

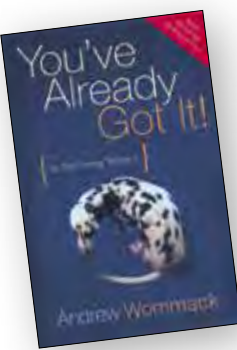

I was a licensed practical nurse for forty-one years and retired in October.

How did you become acquainted with Andrew Wommack?

One night, I had the television on the Christian Television Network. I had fallen asleep, and I woke up and heard this man talking. I started listening. It was really eye-opening and made a lot of sense. He advertised about the website. I went on the computer and put it up and saw what you could listen to. I started listening to him and looking at the testimonies there of people who had been healed. I was hooked. I was being drawn to his teaching and what he was saying. It just revolutionized what I'd been reading in the Bible, and it just came alive. I started listening every night.

What is your favorite teaching of Andrew's, and how has it impacted you?

When I heard him saying healing was in the atonement, the more he taught on that, it was kind of like, "Wow!" He says, "When you are born again, healing's just available." That really did wake things up in me. When he said "You've already got it," I ordered the book and started reading it. I carried it around in my purse. It said a lot of stuff that I hadn't learned in church. It just struck a chord with me.

Have you been healed or had a significant life change through one of Andrew's teachings?

In 2016, I started noticing something different about my body. I made an appointment with the doctor. He told me that he found cancer and said, "We need to send you to a specialist." He did blood work and told me my blood was clear. When I went to the clinic and saw this specialist, he was going to have to do a total hysterectomy and remove lymph nodes, and I might have swelling. At first, I went along with what he was saying. Then something hit my spirit like, "No, that's not God's best." When I got home, I called Andrew Wommack's prayer line. I told the woman what I had been diagnosed with and that they wanted to do surgery. She prayed for me. I felt a difference. I was getting very weak, and I had lost ten pounds. I heard about Andrew coming to North Carolina, so I went. That Monday after his teaching, I wanted Andrew to pray for me. When he prayed, he cursed that cancer and told it that it wouldn't produce and it's dead. I could see him praying to this black ball, and I knew that it was the cancer. When I got to the truck to leave, I couldn't even drive. I was just shaking, and I said, "I'm healed! I'm healed! I'm healed!" It's just awesome what God has done for me. I can never stop praising Him and worshiping Him and doing His work. If it weren't for the goodness of God and the love of God, I wouldn't even be here.

On January 7, I had a checkup with my gynecologist. He said, "How are you doing?" I said, "I'm doing fine." He said, "Did you go see the specialist?" I said, "Yes, and when I went, he told me what he was going to do." I told him I wasn't going back because it's gone—I'm healed. He went to get the nurse, and they did the full-body checkup. He looked at me real strange in my eyes and said, "You're healed." I said, "Yes." He said, "Keep on doing God's work." God's name is above cancer. I can stand there and tell it, "Cancer, in the name of Jesus, you die. You've got to go."

How has being a Charis student impacted your life?

The most impactful thing about being at Charis is being around like-minded people who believe what you believe, who believe in God. Just being around that atmosphere and talking to people who will hug and encourage you, that really kept me going.

What does partnership with Andrew Wommack Ministries mean to you?

It means that I'm helping the Word to go forth. I'm helping build for the future. It means that I'm a part of something that, like Andrew says, "When you get to heaven, people will come and tell you, 'Thank you. What you did changed my life.'"

Would you like to say anything to Andrew?

Thank you, Andrew, for listening to the Lord and helping so many of us today. Because of Andrew teaching the Word—that uncompromised Word that we didn't learn in church—my life is really revolutionized. The Word will make you stronger than you ever thought you could be. I thank Andrew Wommack for that.

Jane Poteet – Chattanooga, Tennessee

What is your occupation?

I am a mom and housewife.

How did you become acquainted with Andrew Wommack?

I became acquainted with Andrew through the television ministry. His background was the same denomination as my background, and he explained the scriptures that were twisted about our faith and our authority. He really helped me.

Have you been healed or had a significant life change through one of Andrew's ministry?

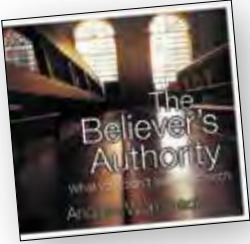

In 2010, I had a hysterectomy. They also removed my left ovary and fatty tissue around my left ovary. Within three years, scar tissue had grown and was interfering with my bowel movements. The doctor said he could not help me unless the pain was unbearable or I was vomiting and nauseated from a total blockage in my bowels. He really didn't want to do anything. He knew that surgery would cause more problems, and it'd be repeated surgery after surgery for my body. I knew I needed God's help. I had been listening to Andrew Wommack on TV. I needed Jesus to help my unbelief. When I saw that Andrew was going to be in Atlanta in April 2014, I knew I had to get there. As I walked the hall of my home before I came, I heard the urging of the Holy Spirit that I needed to be touched. My husband and I received the baptism of the Holy Spirit at the end of the service, and Andrew prayed many prayers over the group of people. Andrew excused himself and let us know that there were people to pray with us. We stood in line and waited to be prayed with, and a beautiful lady held my sides where my adhesion was and prayed for me. When she got finished praying for me, I opened my eyes and her face was aglow. She said, "I felt things, like rubber bands, snapping inside your body." I told her, "I know." And I was healed. Those adhesions were broken. She cursed them to not grow back, and that was four years ago. I have been so blessed with that forever healing. When I was healed, the very next morning, I could see in the mirror the inflammation in that area was gone. It was flat like it should be, and I do not have the difficulty. There was nothing there. It snapped away!

What is your favorite teaching of Andrew's, and how has it impacted you?

The Believer's Authority goes over specific verses of the Bible that were wrongly taught to me about my authority as a believer. This book unveiled the authority that we walk in today in Jesus's name. God Wants You Well is another one, and it's so true. He wants you well. I had this on CDs, and I gave it away because it is so good. This is a fantastic encouragement and truth.

What does partnership with Andrew Wommack Ministries mean to you?

When a ministry has given you so much in your personal life, you become connected. We have been rejoicing about the property when it came available for the ministry. We have been blessed to sow seed in good ground in Colorado. We just pray for others to come aboard to provide the needs so that people are able to be equipped. To God be the glory for Colorado. I'm just amazed.

Would you like to say anything to Andrew?

Andrew, words of "thank you" seem amiss for walking in health. God has given you such wisdom. I just praise God for you being there to share the true way to interpret the Scriptures for God's glory. Thank you, Andrew.

Patty Gundelach – Fort Myers, Florida

What is your occupation?

I'm a home-school mom.

How did you become acquainted with Andrew Wommack?

My daughter, Rosemary, was sick. My brother-in-law showed me the Hannah Terradez healing video. That was the first time.

Have you been healed or had a significant life change through one of Andrew's teachings?

I happened to be down in Florida about four months after seeing that video, and Andrew was having a conference in Orlando. My brother-in-law called and said, "Andrew Wommack's in town. You want to come and bring Rosie for healing?" I said, "Well, I guess so." I didn't understand the fullness of God and the Holy Spirit. We went, and he was speaking a lot on Spirit, Soul & Body. Some things were starting to make sense that never made sense to me before. I had read God's Word. I started to have some assurance in the things that he was teaching. He called for people to receive the baptism of the Holy Spirit and speaking in tongues, and I was ready to run out the door. My daughter talked me into going and taking Rosemary up front for prayer. We did, and the prayer minister just prayed a simple prayer, "Celiac, be gone in Jesus's name. Rosemary, Jesus healed you." She said, "Mommy, I want pizza." That's not something Rosemary would ever say. She was so sick that even just being in the room when we opened a bag of flour would cause issues in her body. She would never ask for pizza. It was the moment of truth for me. I had to decide whether I believed it or not. I thought, I'm going to be the crazy lady on the ten o'clock news who gives her daughter pizza after this healing conference, and she goes into a coma or something. I walked out the door holding Rosie's hand, and Carlie Terradez was outside at the book table. I said, "My gosh, there's that mom." I beelined it to her. I told her what happened with Rosemary. I asked, "Can my unbelief cause her not to be healed?" She said, "Well, do you believe God's Word?" I said, "Yeah." She gave me some scriptures to stand on. We took Rosemary out for dinner and got her pizza. She was fine. She slept through the whole night, and she didn't wet the bed. I was just in shock. It took me a while to really process that she was really healed. She was so sick. She was vomiting all the time. She was five years old, and she had four root canals, two extractions, and fillings in every tooth because they were just rotting. That day changed our lives.

I thought, I'm going to be the crazy lady on the ten o'clock news who gives her daughter pizza after this healing conference, and she goes into a coma or something.

We're living a miracle life. But it didn't stop with Rosemary. That was just the beginning. I walked with God for twenty years, and I never knew the fullness of His love. Since then, everything has changed. I have six children, and they all ran from the Lord. Since Rosemary's healing, they watched the healing in our hearts, and they're all coming back and all giving their lives to the Lord. It's so exciting.

Juli Berríos – Cape Coral, Florida

What is your occupation?

I'm retired.

How did you become acquainted with Andrew Wommack?

When I arrived at my daughter's home, she said, "I hope you don't mind, but I signed you up to go to this conference with the rest of us." I said, "No, I don't mind." So, here I am.

When he started praying, all of a sudden there was a big pop right behind my ear. I jumped because I wasn't expecting that. He said, "Okay," and he moved over to my left side. He said, "Can you hear me?" I said, "Yes." He started snapping his fingers. I could hear!

How are you enjoying the conference? What do you like about it?

I more than just love it. I have been studying the Bible for years, and my spiritual life is developing more rapidly than ever before. This is coming at the right time with the right message for what God is preparing me to do. Ministry is not over. I am not a dead palm tree. My husband and I know we're going out into ministry. My husband, who I am having faith will be healed, can't walk. I have had this bubbling excitement ever since I arrived here that things are about to change. We are going to be used by God. In the meantime, He is correcting a few problems. We are now focusing on God, not ourselves. The reason I think I never received this before was because I did not understand that I cannot operate in the flesh and receive spiritual blessings. I have to be moving in the Spirit if I want to receive spiritual blessings. This conference has really helped me to understand that.

Have you been healed or had a significant life change through one of Andrew's ministry?

Forty-eight years ago, I had strep throat. I completely lost the hearing in my left ear. The doctor said it was nerve damage and that I would never hear again. When I worked in ICU, I worked with the ear, nose, and throat doctors. They said, "Well, if this had just happened a few years ago, we could now do something with the way medicine has developed. But it happened so long ago, we can't do anything for you. You'll never hear again, not from that ear." In the past few years, I started losing the hearing in my right ear too. I had to have my right ear facing toward the person talking, and I had to lean forward to hear them.

Thursday night, we came to the conference, and I asked the Lord if I could go up for healing. He said, "Not yet." So, it's a two-hour ride home. During the ride, I asked the Lord and He said, "You have to come out of agreement with the doctors. You accepted their diagnosis; I want you to accept My diagnosis. You need to be in agreement with the Bible." I said, "Okay, I'm quite willing to do that. I want to be in complete agreement with You, Lord." This morning, I asked the Lord, "Now, Lord?" He said, "Go up there." I went up and spoke with a prayer minister. We prayed, and I could feel the Lord just come down. When he started praying, all of a sudden there was a big pop right behind my ear. I jumped because I wasn't expecting that. He said, "Okay," and he moved over to my left side. He said, "Can you hear me?" I said,

"Yes." He started snapping his fingers. I could hear! He moved away from me. He said, "Can you hear me?" I said, "I can hear you." Praise God! At lunchtime, we went over to the mall to the food court because my daughter was meeting a friend of hers there. You know how noisy food courts are. Her friend sat next to me on the left, while my daughter sat over to my right. They were conversing, and I heard every single word despite all that noise. Afterward I called my husband, who was in Florida. He started talking, and I said, "I can hear you despite all this noise." He was just praising God, and I am just praising God.

Would you like to say anything to Andrew?

Andrew, I want to thank you so much for giving me the opportunity to interact with God, to know God as He really is, and to be able to understand the difference between my soul and my spirit, which I never did before listening to your teachings. I appreciate everything that you have done for me and for the opportunity that you give not only me but also everyone who's willing to listen. Thank you. The Lord is teaching me. I was telling my friend that it is like an avalanche. Everything is just snowballing so big, and it's so wonderful that I just wish every single person on earth could do this.

Deborah Farnham – Mill Spring, North Carolina

What is your occupation?

I was an international flight attendant for Delta Airlines for twenty-five years.

How did you become acquainted with Andrew Wommack?

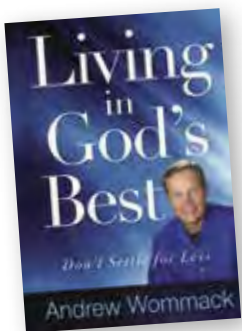

A lady I went to church with had been watching Andrew for forever. God told her to send her son to Charis. She started telling me about it. One day, I turned on Roku, and there Andrew was. I started watching. We've been watching ever since.

Have you had a significant life change through one of Andrew's teachings?

My husband and I were in debt. He came home a year ago in February and said, "What are we doing?" We started praying about it. God said, "Get out of debt. Get rid of as much stuff as you can and sell your house. That will get you out of debt, and you'll have money left over." That month, Andrew's teaching Living in God's Best was on. I just looked at my husband, and I said, "This debt and this stuff over our heads is not God's best for us." We called the real estate agent, who sold the house in one day for $10,000 over asking price. We had no idea where we were going. We had been settling for less for so long, we just didn't know what else to do. We were able to buy a lot on the lake where we live now. He directed us to a lady who had a house down there for rent. We're waiting on God's timing to build our house because we don't want to go back into debt. That's not God's best for us. He has such an awesome plan for us when we do what He wants us to do. When He tells you to do something, just do it. It's an awesome outcome when you do. It'll work out.

What does partnership with Andrew mean to you?

It's being part of God's plan and supporting the vision that Andrew has worldwide. Andrew has made such an impact in our lives through his ministry. Seeing all that the ministry is doing around the world, how much it's impacting everyone else, and knowing that we're part of helping him be able to do that—it's great to know that you're part of that bigger plan. We're grateful to be able to be part of that.

How are you enjoying the conference? What do you like about it?

It's wonderful. There's so much excitement in the air. There are so many testimonies, so many healings. The music is wonderful. I love listening to Greg Fritz. His teaching was wonderful. Andrew is so down to earth. He is such a witness for walking with the Lord. It's so nice just to be able to speak with him and listen to his teachings and meet all the people I'm meeting. It's like being with your family in Christ.

Would you like to say anything to Andrew?

Andrew, I just want to say thank you, thank you, thank you for being a servant of God, for being obedient to God. You have impacted our lives so much. I can't even begin to express how thankful we are for you and your ministry. Just keep doing what God tells you to do because you're blessing millions and millions of people. I thank you.
